REDACTION CHART

Please provide specific justification for each item for which you seek protection from FOIL disclosure. An appropriate justification may any one or more of the following considerations by which to demonstrate reasonably whether the item for which you seek protection may be excepted from disclosure:

- a) the confidential nature of the specific item, including a description of the nature and extent of the injury to the HMO's competitive position, such as unfair economic or competitive damage, which would be incurred were the information/record to be disclosed;
- b) whether the specific information/record is treated as confidential by the HMO, including whether it ever has been made available to any person or entity;
- c) whether any patent, copyright, or similar legal protection exists for the specific item of information;
- d) whether the public disclosure of the information/record is otherwise restricted by law, and the specific source and content of such restriction;
- e) the date upon which the information/record no longer will need to be kept confidential, if applicable;
- f) whether the item of information is known by anyone outside the HMO's business or organization;
- g) the extent to which the information is known by HMO's employees and others involved in the HMO's business;
- h) the value of the specific information/record to the HMO and to its competitors;
- i) the amount of effort or money expended by the HMO in developing the information/record; and
- j) the ease or difficulty with which the information could be properly acquired or duplicated (not merely copied) for use by others.
