Leave at Full Pay	RRSU employees are entitled to 30 days and M/C employees are entitled to 25 days of Family Sick Leave per calendar year.* Use of credits other than Sick Leave for illness in family is discretionary with Appointing Authority. Family Sick Leave can also be used for Bereavement.	FMLA does not require an employer to authorize use of paid leave where it would not otherwise be authorized. As a matter of State policy, when use of leave credits would be allowed under the Attendance Rules, employee may elect to use appropriate leave credits during a period of FMLA leave or may choose not to use credits.	Employee may choose to use Family Sick Leave, Vacation, or Personal Leave for all or part of absence. Time charged to leave accruals does not count against an employee's annual entitlement of PFL.
Leave at Partial Pay	Employee option, charge to Family Sick Leave.	Employee option, charge to appropriate accruals or leave without pay.	Employee who chooses not to charge Leave Accruals will receive up to 12 weeks of partial pay (capped at 67% of the State Average Weekly Wage) in accordance with WCL section 204, upon the first full day of absence.
Full or Partial Day Absences	Employee option of full or partial days, charge to Family Sick Leave.	Employee option, charge to appropriate accruals or leave without pay.	Full day absences only.
Service Requirements	Immediate Coverage for Annual Salaried Employees.	One Cumulative Year of State Service and 1250 work hours during the 52 consecutive weeks immediately preceding the date FMLA leave begins.	Employees working 20 hours or more per week become eligible for PFL upon completion of twenty-six consecutive weeks of State service. Employees who work less than 20 hours per week become eligible for PFL upon completion of one hundred seventy-five days of State service.

*Sick Leave credits for absences necessitated by illness in the employee's family are generally restricted to absences occasioned by the need for the services of the employee.
