To: Manual Recipients
From: Blaine Ryan-Lynch, Director of Staffing Services
Subject: Memoranda of Understanding on Extension of Special Military Benefits and Post-Discharge Benefits through December 31, 2012

The Governor's Office of Employee Relations has signed Memoranda of Understanding with the Civil Service Employees Association, Council 82, District Council 37, NYS Correctional Officers and Police Benevolent Association, Agency Law Enforcement Services, Graduate Students Employee Union, Public Employees Federation, and United University Professions, extending current special military benefits for service in connection with the war on terror, and certain benefits in connection with return from military duty for duty related to the war on terror that exceeds 180 days' duration through December 31, 2012. The same benefits provided in these MOUs are extended to M/C employees.

Provisions of the MOUs are not grievable.

The existing special military benefits extended under these MOUs are administered in accordance with previously issued memoranda.

Agencies should consult the following memoranda to ensure proper administration of these benefits:
