Your physical and medical condition will be evaluated to ensure that you are able to satisfactorily perform the duties of the position with or without reasonable accommodation. A complete statement of the Physical/Medical Requirements can be terminated at any time after the initial four (4) weeks and before completion of the traineeship.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS TO PARTICIPATE IN THIS EXAMINATION: On or before the date of filing your application, you must be a qualified employee of the New York State Office for People With Developmental Disabilities (OPWDD) and have had one year of permanent competitive, non-competitive, labor; or 55-b/55-c service in a position allocated to Grade 3 or higher; AND you must have:

Either 1. graduated from high school or have earned a high school equivalency diploma (such as a GED) or higher;

Or 2. a Direct Support Professional (DSP) Certificate from an accredited public or private organization.

You must include the name and location of the high school or governmental authority that granted the diploma in the “Education” Section of your application.

You must include the name and location of the organization that granted the DSP Certificate in the “Education” Section of your application and you MUST supply a copy of the Certificate with your application.

There will be a written test administered in English only, which you must pass. If you pass the written test, you must meet the QUALIFICATIONS FOR APPOINTMENT.

In accordance with Section 52.11 of the Civil Service Law, individuals serving permanently in the non-competitive or labor class in a qualifying title (including those serving under Section 55-b/55-c) who otherwise meet the requirements for taking this examination are eligible to compete in this transition examination.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR APPOINTMENT:

1. License Requirement: You must possess a valid license to operate a motor vehicle in New York State at the time of appointment and continuously thereafter.

2. Physical/Medical Requirements: Your physical and medical condition will be evaluated to ensure that you are able to satisfactorily perform the duties of this position with or without reasonable accommodation. A complete statement of the physical and medical standards is available at: http://www.cs.ny.gov/ehs/forms.cfm. A medical examination will be required prior to appointment, and you are responsible for payment of the clinical laboratory test fee. Please note that the medical examination includes psychological and drug screening. Appointees to this position may be required to undergo periodic medical examinations to reassess their ability to perform the essential duties of the position.

3. Background Investigation/Justice Center Review: The names of all prospective employees will be:

- Checked against the Staff Exclusion List (SEL) maintained by the Justice Center for the Protection of People with Special Needs. Prospective employees whose names appear on the SEL as having been found responsible for serious or repeated acts of abuse or neglect will be barred from appointment and may have their names removed from the eligible list(s) for the title(s);
- Investigated through a Criminal Background Check (CBC). All convictions must be reported. Conviction of a felony or misdemeanor or any falsified or omitted information may bar appointment or result in removal after appointment. Each case will be determined on its own merits, consistent with the applicable provisions of state and federal laws; and may be:
  - Screened against the Statewide Central Register of Child Abuse and Maltreatment (SCR). Prospective employees whose names appear on the SCR may be barred from appointment. (NY Social Services Law, Section 424-a.) You will be responsible for payment of all required fees.

4. Medicaid and Medicare: In order to be eligible for appointment and to maintain employment, you cannot be listed as an excluded individual or entity on any of the Federal and/or State Medicaid and Medicare exclusion lists (or excluded from any other Federal or Federally assisted program). If you are appointed and subsequently listed as an excluded individual or entity on any of these lists (or excluded from any other Federal or Federally assisted program), you may be terminated from your employment.

NOTES:

1. Your high school diploma or equivalency diploma must have been awarded by a high school or educational institution accredited by a regional, national, or specialized agency recognized as an accrediting agency by the U.S. Department of Education/U.S. Secretary of Education. If your high school diploma was awarded by an educational institution outside the United States and its territories, you must provide independent verification of equivalency. You can write to the Examination Information Desk of the NYS Department of Civil Service for a list of acceptable companies who provide this service. This information can also be found on the Internet at http://www.cs.ny.gov/jobseeker/degrees.cfm. You must pay the required evaluation fee.

2. This examination uses the same test as the Direct Support Assistant examination. A candidate cannot be tested more than once during the same test form period. Each test form period runs from July 1st through June 15th of the following year. If you take the test more than once during the same test form period, you will not receive a score for the second test.
3. If you are successful on this examination, your name will be placed on both the transition and open-competitive lists used by your OPWDD facility. You may request that your score be transferred to Developmental Disabilities Secure Care Treatment Aide Trainee and Direct Support Assistant transition and/or open-competitive lists at other OPWDD facilities. Instructions on how to have your score transferred will appear on your written test score notice.
4. If you submit an application for No. 10-027 Developmental Disabilities Secure Care Treatment Aide Trainee (Spanish Language), an application for No. 10-026 Developmental Disabilities Secure Care Treatment Aide Trainee will automatically be submitted for consideration. If you are successful on the examination, your name will be placed on both lists.
5. Language Proficiency: If you are considered for appointment to a language parenthetical position, you will be required to pass a performance test to demonstrate your proficiency in the language. Proficiency must be at a level that will ensure your ability to properly perform the duties of the position. If other language parenthetical positions are established, the examination for Nos. 20-151 and 10-026, Developmental Disabilities Secure Care Treatment Aide Trainee will be used to fill those positions.

SUBJECT OF EXAMINATION: There will be a written test which you must pass in order to be considered for appointment. The written test will be knowledge-based test in the test areas as follows:

1. Dealing with daily situations in an OPWDD setting - These questions test for the ability to apply common sense in dealing with daily situations encountered by direct care staff in OPWDD settings. No specific knowledge or training is needed to answer these questions.
2. Observing and recording situations of daily living - These questions test for the ability to accurately observe and record situations of daily living. Candidates will be given a brief description of a situation of daily living, followed by a number of sentences. Candidates must indicate whether or not the sentences factually and accurately describe the situation presented.
3. Understanding and applying written instructional material - These questions test for the ability to understand and apply written instructional materials. Each question has two parts. The first part presents a short piece of instructional material. The second part describes a related situation. For each question, candidates must pick the one best answer based on the instructional material and the situation presented.
4. Arithmetic for daily living - These questions test for the ability to use basic arithmetic in daily situations encountered by direct care staff in OPWDD settings. The situations involve the application of simple addition, subtraction, multiplication, or division, as well as interpreting information from simple tables, to answer the problems presented.

Your final score must be 70 or higher in order to pass. Your final score on the eligible list will be determined after adding any wartime Veterans' and Civil Service Law Section 85-a credits.

CREDIT FOR SENIORITY: Seniority is credited at the rate of one credit for each five-year period (or fraction thereof) excluding the first year of service.

DUTIES: As a Developmental Disabilities Secure Care Treatment Aide Trainee, you will assist in the habilitation and care of individuals with developmental disabilities living in an OPWDD secure unit. These individuals may exhibit criminal and offending behaviors, have severely deviant behaviors, and/or be dangerous to themselves or others. You would be responsible for providing these individuals with a safe and secure environment and assisting in the implementation of their habilitation plan. You must be able to stand, bend, stretch, lift, and participate in physical interventions.

THE POSITIONS: These positions are located ONLY in intensive treatment units in certain facilities operated by OPWDD.

Important: OPWDD may communicate with you through email correspondence. This may include the notification of your examination results and canvassing you for interest in appointment. It will be important for you to keep your email address, phone number, and mailing address current by contacting your Personnel Office.

HOW & WHERE TO APPLY: Use application-supplemental questionnaire Form NYS-APP-3 #10-026 & 10-027 with SUPP #10-026 Developmental Disabilities Secure Care Treatment Aide Trainee (Spanish Language) Form NYS-APP-4 & 10-027 & 10-028 Developmental Disabilities Secure Care Treatment Aide Trainee. Forms are also available at the following website: https://www.cs.ny.gov/announ/applications.cfm. Forms are also available by mail or in person from the New York State Department of Civil Service, Albany, NY 12239 or email cs_sm_examinfo@cs.ny.gov. State employees may obtain forms from their agency/facility personnel offices.

The application-supplemental questionnaire is an examination application; it is not a job application. You will not receive any notice of the receipt of your application. When a test has been scheduled by the facility, an admission notice, detailing when and where the examination will be held, will be mailed to you approximately two weeks prior to the examination date.

Within OPWDD, facilities have varying ongoing needs for persons qualified for appointment to these positions. Facilities with accept applications at any time and will schedule the written test whenever additional eligible are needed. It is anticipated that the examinations will be held on a periodic basis throughout the year. For the testing schedule and other information about this examination, contact the personnel office of the facility where you wish to be tested.
