MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS TO PARTICIPATE IN THIS EXAMINATION: On or before the date of filing your application you must be a graduate of an accredited law school with an LLB or JD degree and/or be eligible to take the New York State Bar examination. If you are in your senior year at an accredited law school, you may apply within two months of the date of your anticipated graduation. See below for details concerning entry levels of appointment and supplementary qualifications.

NOTES:
1. Appropriate part-time and volunteer experience, which can be verified, will be accepted on a prorated basis in determining the appropriate appointment level. Also, experience gained subsequent to admission to the Bar in a state having reciprocity with New York State can be credited only after admission to the New York State Bar. Candidates must note such experience and the existence of the admission reciprocity agreement at the time of interview.
2. New York State residence is not required.
3. Your degree or college credit must have been awarded by a regionally accredited college or university and one recognized by the NYS Education Department as following acceptable educational practices. If your degree was awarded by an educational institution outside the United States and its territories, you must provide independent verification of equivalency. You can write to the Examination Information Desk of the NYS Department of Civil Service for a list of acceptable companies who provide this service. This information can also be found on the Internet at http://www.cs.ny.gov/jobseeker/degrees.cfm. You must pay the required evaluation fee.

This examination will be used to fill trainee or journey level appointments (see Legal Traineeship Level chart below).

Advancement Within the Legal Traineeship (Following Appointment From Eligible List No. 20-131): If you are appointed to one of the entry levels of the Attorney Traineeship, you will normally be advanced after each twelve months of satisfactory service to the next higher title (with salary based on performance) until you reach the full performance level of a Senior Attorney, Senior Attorney (Realty), Senior Attorney (Financial Services), Hearing Officer, Unemployment Insurance Referee/Unemployment Insurance Referee (Spanish Language) or Motor Vehicle Referee/Motor Vehicle Referee (Spanish Language).

If you are appointed as an Assistant Attorney 1, you will be automatically advanced to Assistant Attorney 2 upon admission to the New York State Bar. If you are not admitted to the New York State Bar within two years of appointment, your appointment will be terminated.

If your final performance evaluation as an Assistant Attorney 2, and your six month performance evaluation as an Assistant Attorney 3, are rated outstanding, you may be eligible for early advancement to Senior Attorney, reducing your traineeship by six months. Similarly, if your final performance evaluation as an Assistant Attorney 2, and your six month performance evaluation as an Assistant Hearing Officer are rated outstanding, you may be eligible for early advancement to Hearing Officer, reducing your traineeship by six months. Additionally, this would apply to all titles filled from the Legal Specialties traineeship.

All service during the traineeship will be in probationary status. Performance will be evaluated every six months against established standards set by the individual agencies which reflect a timetable for gaining the knowledge and skills necessary so that appointees are able to function at the Senior Attorney, Senior Attorney (Realty), Senior Attorney (Financial Services), Hearing Officer, Motor Vehicle Referee, Motor Vehicle Referee (Spanish Language), Unemployment Insurance Referee or Unemployment Insurance Referee (Spanish Language) level at the completion of the traineeship.

THE POSITIONS: These positions exist in multiple agencies throughout the State. Assignments will vary, depending on the particular department or agency with which you work.

As a Hearing Officer, you might preside at quasi-judicial or administrative hearings which are of an adversarial or investigative nature concerning the resolution of issues of fact, law, and regulatory practice; conduct hearings; issue subpoenas; evaluate evidence; make findings of fact and conclusions of law; and render or recommend decisions.

As an Unemployment Insurance Referee or Unemployment Insurance Referee (Spanish Language), you conduct hearings and render decisions in accordance with New York State Unemployment Insurance (UI) Law, related statutes, and special Federal programs, for claimants or employers appealing initial determinations or proposed actions concerning eligibility or employer’s liability. You would preside at quasi-judicial or administrative hearings which are of an adversarial or investigative nature concerning the resolution of issues of fact, law, and regulatory practice, directing issuance of subpoenas, requiring attendance of witnesses or the production of necessary documents, taking depositions from witnesses, ruling on the admissibility of evidence, and rendering or recommending decisions.

You would administer oaths, question witnesses, render written decisions based upon the admission and review of documentary evidence involving cases concerning fatal and serious accidents, chemical test refusals, misuse of junior operative privileges and order restitution.

Language Proficiency: The eligible list may be used to fill job titles that require proficiency in a language other than English. If you are considered for appointment to such a position, you will be required to pass a performance test to demonstrate your proficiency in the language at a level that will ensure your ability to perform the duties of the position. If other language parenthetic job titles are established, the list will also be used to fill those job titles and appointees must demonstrate their language proficiency prior to appointment.

SUBJECT OF EXAMINATION: The Department of Civil Service has developed a selection process which will match your education and experience to a specific position that needs to be filled. No written test and no test date are involved. If you meet the Minimum Qualifications, you will be sent an education and experience questionnaire which should be completed and returned to the New York State Department of Civil Service. Your answers to the questionnaire will be matched against criteria identified for current vacancies. You will be rated on your education and experience, which will be weighted according to the requirements of the specific position to be filled. Your rating thus may vary when being scored for different jobs. Ratings will be based on such factors as: categories of legal experience; types of tasks previously performed within the legal sphere; major field(s) and level(s) of legal and non-legal education; licenses and certificates obtained (e.g., CPA, P.E.); work experience outside the practice of law; and the duration of each type of experience. It is important to note that your ranking will vary widely, depending on the nature of a given vacancy. You may be considered and called to interviews for several different positions, depending on your education and experience. It will not be possible for the Department of Civil Service to define your rank for any given position in advance of an agency's request for a list of candidates available for appointment. Final scores will be based on the ratings received on the evaluation of education and experience.
