Promotion examination open to all qualified employees of the New York State Commission of Correction.

Minimum Qualifications: On or before August 9, 2025, you must be a qualified employee of the New York State Commission of Correction and have had three months of permanent competitive, non-competitive NY HELPS*, or 55-b/55-c service as shown below. If you have received a permanent appointment to a qualifying title listed and served provisionally in that title immediately preceding your permanent appointment, such provisional service may be counted towards meeting the time in title required for this examination.

For Exam No. 31-080020: a Correctional Facility Specialist 1.

For Exam No. 31-081020: a Correctional Facility Specialist 2.

Only the title or titles listed are qualifying.

If you were permanently appointed to a qualifying title on or before May 9, 2025, and have served continuously in this title since that date, you are eligible to file for this examination.

If you were permanently appointed via the New York Hiring for Emergency Limited Placement Statewide (NY HELPS) program to a qualifying position in the non-competitive class on or before May 9, 2025, and have served continuously in this title since that date, you may apply for this examination.*

If you were permanently appointed to a qualifying title and had provisional service in the same title immediately preceding the permanent appointment, such provisional service may be counted towards meeting the time in title required to apply for this examination. Your provisional appointment must have been on or before May 9, 2025, to qualify for this examination.*

Qualifying Experience For Appointment From The Eligible List: After one year of service described in the Minimum Qualifications, successful candidates will be qualified for appointment from the eligible list.

Employees appointed to a non-competitive position via the NY HELPS program to a qualifying title in the non-competitive class will have their names restricted from appointment from the eligible list until their position is covered-in to the competitive class by action of the New York State Civil Service Commission or otherwise obtain permanent competitive status in the position.

If you have received a permanent appointment to a qualifying title listed and served provisionally in that title immediately preceding your permanent appointment, such provisional service may be counted towards meeting the time in title required for appointment from the eligible list.

The Positions: These positions exist in the New York State Commission of Correction.

Duties: As a Correctional Facility Specialist 2, you would serve as a senior field representative handling the more complex and sensitive investigations and projects. You would plan and schedule fieldwork during intensive evaluations and/or complex investigations. You would assist facility administrators in developing policies, procedures, and acceptable plans to correct violations. You would formulate maximum facility capacity ratings and minimum staffing analyses to local correctional facilities of staff necessary to provide inmate care. You would analyze facility regulation variance requests and formulate recommendations to the Commission. You would supervise Correctional Facility Specialist 1s.

As a Correctional Facility Specialist 3, you would serve as a field supervisor, and direct major investigations. You would plan and direct the activities of the Commission. You would assemble and assign regional work teams; develop annual work schedules to ensure all jails, police lockups and Office of Children and Family Services facilities are inspected during the cycle year. You would study policies, procedures, organizational and management practices of local and State correctional facilities. You would assume responsibility for the outcomes of major programs; and supervise Correctional Facility Specialists 1 & 2s.

Note:

- Travel Requirements: Appointment to certain positions requires extensive travel within an area of assignment. Appointees may need to operate a motor vehicle or have other means to meet the transportation needs of the job. If the position requires that you operate a motor vehicle, you must continuously have a driver's license valid in New York State to continue employment. Field work and travel expenses are reimbursed on a fixed schedule. Overnight travel may be required.

Subject of Examination: To be considered for appointment to this title, you must pass the multiple-choice test . The multiple-choice test evaluates your knowledge, skills, and/or abilities in the following areas:	For Examination Nos.
	31-080020	31-081020
1. Preparing reports and official documents - These questions test for the ability to prepare reports and other official documents for use within and among governmental agencies, in legal or regulatory settings, or for dissemination to the public. Some questions test for a knowledge of correct grammar, usage, punctuation, and sentence structure. Others test for the ability to use the proper tone, and to express information clearly and accurately, and to organize paragraphs logically and comprehensively.	X	X
2. Inspection and interview techniques - These questions test your ability to select the proper course of action in situations which might occur during routine inspections. Question topics may cover, but will not be limited to, such areas as interviewing, gathering information and evidence, maintaining proper attitude, and handling irregularities and violations with integrity and sound judgment. Some questions may be in a situational format while others may deal with the proper principles and practices of inspection.	X	X
3. New York State minimum standards for correctional facilities - These questions test knowledge of the Minimum Standards for state, county, and local correctional facilities that are promulgated by the New York State Commission of Correction in areas such as the admission/discharge, care, custody, movement, correctional treatment, security, supervision, and discipline of all persons confined in these systems.	X	X
4. Evaluating conclusions based on factual information - These questions test your ability to evaluate and draw conclusions from factual information presented. Each question consists of a set of factual statements and a conclusion. You will be asked to determine whether the conclusion can be proven to be true by the facts, proven to be false by the facts, or if the facts are inadequate to prove the conclusion.	X
5. Administrative techniques and practices - These questions test for a knowledge of management techniques and practices used in directing or assisting in directing a program component or an organizational segment. Questions cover such areas as interpreting policies, making decisions based on the context of the position in the organization, coordinating programs or projects, communicating with employees or the public, planning employee training, and researching and evaluating areas of concern.		X

Subject of Examination (continued):	For Examination Nos.
	31-080020	31-081020
6. Supervision - These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices employed in planning, organizing, and controlling the activities of a work unit toward predetermined objectives. The concepts covered, usually in a situational question format, include such topics as assigning and reviewing work; evaluating performance; maintaining work standards; motivating and developing subordinates; implementing procedural change; increasing efficiency; and dealing with problems of absenteeism, morale, and discipline.
