Subject of Examination: To be considered for appointment to this title, you must pass the multiple-choice test. The multiple-choice test evaluates your knowledge, skills, and/or abilities in the following areas:

1. Administrative supervision in a correctional facility - These questions test for the ability to direct the activities of subordinate staff in a correctional services setting through subordinate supervisors and the ability to appropriately handle problems that arise in connection with the performance of these activities. These questions cover such areas as: motivating and developing staff, investigating allegations of staff misconduct, delegating authority to subordinate supervisors in carrying out department operations, assigning and reviewing work, maintaining work standards, managing staff resources, and dealing with problems of morale, poor work performance and discipline.
2. Rules, regulations, and procedures relevant to the operation of a correctional facility - These questions test for knowledge of DOCCS directives, presented in a situational format, that pertain to situations Captains may typically encounter on the job.
3. Writing Skills for Correction Captains - These questions test for the writing skills needed by Correction Captains in producing the full range of written communications required by the position. Some questions ask you to detect errors in grammar, punctuation, or sentence structure; some ask you to determine the most clear, accurate, and complete restatement of information presented in several statements; and others ask you to determine the best way to organize a group of sentences into a coherent paragraph.

If you pass, your seniority credit(s), if any, will be included in the computation of your final score. Your final score on the eligible list will be determined after adding any Veterans' credits.

Credit For Seniority: Seniority is credited at the rate of one credit for each five-year period (or fraction thereof), excluding the first year of service.
