Promotion examination open to all qualified employees of the New York State Division of Housing and Community Renewal.

Minimum Qualifications: On or before April 13, 2024, you must be a qualified employee of the New York State Division of Housing and Community Renewal and have had three months of permanent competitive or 55-b/55-c service as a Rent Inspector 1, Rent Inspector 1 (Spanish Language), Rental Housing Inspector 1, or Rental Housing Inspector 1 (Spanish Language).

Only the title or titles listed are qualifying.

If you were permanently appointed to a qualifying title on or before January 13, 2024, and have served continuously in this title since that date, you are eligible to file for this examination.

Qualifying Experience For Appointment From The Eligible List: After one year of service described in the Minimum Qualifications, successful candidates will be qualified for appointment from the eligible list.

Additional Requirements for Appointment:

- Language Proficiency: If you pass the examination and apply to a title which requires language proficiency, you must demonstrate your language proficiency at a level that will ensure your ability to perform the duties of the position properly. The proficiency test will only be given to enough candidates to fill current vacancies.

The Positions: These positions exist in the New York State Division of Housing and Community Renewal and are located in New York City, Jamaica, and the Bronx.

Duties: As a Rental Housing Inspector 2, you would supervise a number of Rental Housing Inspector 1s by assigning inspections of housing accommodations and reviewing their written reports of these inspections. You would conduct inspections of a more sensitive nature, and train staff on how to conduct field inspections designed to evaluate rental conditions and verify information pertinent to the disposition of applications filed by landlords or tenants. You would keep staff up-to-date on the provisions of various rent control and rent stabilization laws and regulations, and instruct staff on how to testify in hearings regarding their findings.

As a Rental Housing Inspector 2 (Spanish Language), you would perform the above duties in areas with a high concentration of Spanish-speaking individuals.

Important: The duties of these positions involve strenuous physical activity such as climbing stairs and ladders to inspect roofs or basements and lifting of heavy objects such as trap doors or skylights.

Notes:

1. Travel Requirements: Appointment to certain positions requires extensive travel within an area of assignment. Appointees may need to operate a motor vehicle or have other means to meet the transportation needs of the job. If the position requires that you operate a motor vehicle, you must continuously have a driver's license valid in New York State to continue employment. Field work and travel expenses are reimbursed on a fixed schedule. Overnight travel may be required.
2. If you submit an application for an examination with a language parenthesis, an application will automatically be submitted for you for the non-language examination.

Subject of Examination: To be considered for appointment to this title, you must pass the multiple-choice test. The multiple-choice test evaluates your knowledge, skills, and/or abilities in the following areas:

1. Preparing written material - These questions test for the ability to present information clearly and accurately, and to organize paragraphs logically and comprehensibly. For some questions, you will be given information in two or three sentences followed by four restatements of the information. You must then choose the best version. For other questions, you will be given paragraphs with their sentences out of order. You must then choose, from four suggestions, the best order for the sentences.
2. Evaluating information and evidence - These questions test the candidates' abilities to evaluate and draw conclusions from information and evidence. Each question consists of a set of facts and a conclusion based on the facts. The candidate must decide if a conclusion is warranted by the facts.
3. Inspection and interviewing techniques - These questions test your ability to select the proper course of action in situations which might occur during routine inspections. Question topics may cover, but will not be limited to, such areas as interviewing, gathering information and evidence, maintaining proper attitude, and handling irregularities and violations with integrity and sound judgment. Some questions may be in a situational format while others may deal with the proper principles and practices of inspection.

4. Supervision - These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices employed in planning, organizing, and controlling the activities of a work unit toward predetermined objectives. The concepts covered, usually in a situational question format, include such topics as assigning and reviewing work; evaluating performance; maintaining work standards; motivating and developing subordinates; implementing procedural change; increasing efficiency; and dealing with problems of absenteeism, morale, and discipline.
5. Understanding and interpreting written material - These questions test for the ability to understand and interpret written material. You will be presented with brief reading passages and will be asked questions about the passages. You should base your answers to the questions only on what is presented in the passages and not on what you may happen to know about the topic.

If you pass, your seniority credit(s), if any, will be included in the computation of your final score. Your final score on the eligible list will be determined after adding any wartime Veterans' credits.

Credit For Seniority: Seniority is credited at the rate of one credit for each five-year period (or fraction thereof), excluding the first year of service.

Admission To The Test: If approved for a multiple-choice test, you will receive an admission notice which will indicate your assigned test date and the way your test will be administered. Your test may be administered with paper and pencil or online at a state test site using a state-provided Chromebook. You cannot request to change your scheduled day or request a specific type of test administration.
