Subject of Examination: To be considered for appointment to this title, you must pass the multiple-choice test. The multiple-choice test evaluates your knowledge, skills, and/or abilities in the following areas:

1. Workers' Compensation Law, Case Law, and related rules and regulations - These questions test for knowledge of the New York State Workers' Compensation Law, the status of Workers' Compensation case law, and related rules and regulations (not including the Volunteer Firefighters' Benefit Law nor the Volunteer Ambulance Workers' Law) in effect on July 1, 2025. All of the cases presented in the case law questions contain the fact patterns of actual Workers' Compensation cases decided in New York State courts or by the Workers' Compensation Board. To answer each question correctly, the candidate must recognize the fact pattern and apply the appropriate legal precedent.
2. Ensuring effective inter/intra agency communications - These questions test for understanding of techniques for interacting effectively with individuals and agencies, to educate and inform them about topics of concern, to clarify agency programs or policies, to negotiate conflicts or resolve complaints, and to represent one's agency or program in a manner in keeping with good public relations practices. Questions may also cover interacting with the staff of one's own agency and/or that of other agencies in cooperative efforts of public outreach or service.
3. Preparing reports and official documents - These questions test for the ability to prepare reports and other official documents for use within and among governmental agencies, in legal or regulatory settings, or for dissemination to the public. Some questions test for a knowledge of grammar, usage, punctuation, and sentence structure. Others test for the ability to present information clearly and accurately, to use the proper tone, and to organize paragraphs logically and comprehensibly.
