Promotion examination open to all qualified employees of the New York State Department of Health.

Minimum Qualifications: On or before September 20, 2025, you must be a qualified employee of the New York State Department of Health and have had three months of permanent competitive, non-competitive NY HELPS*, or 55-b/55-c service as shown below. If you have received a permanent appointment to a qualifying title listed and served provisionally in that title immediately preceding your permanent appointment, such provisional service may be counted towards meeting the time in title required for this examination.

For Exam No. 31-219020: Medicaid Eligibility Examiner 2, Medicaid Eligibility Examiner 2 (Spanish Language), or Medicaid Claims Examiner 2.

For Exam No. 31-220020: Medicaid Eligibility Examiner 3 or Medicaid Claims Examiner 3.

Only the title or titles listed are qualifying.

If you were permanently appointed to a qualifying title on or before June 20, 2025, and have served continuously in this title since that date, you are eligible to file for this examination.

If you were permanently appointed via the New York Hiring for Emergency Limited Placement Statewide (NY HELPS) program to a qualifying title in the non-competitive class on or before June 20, 2025, and have served continuously in this title since that date, you may apply for this examination.*

If you were permanently appointed to a qualifying title and had provisional service in the same title immediately preceding the permanent appointment, such provisional service may be counted towards meeting the time in title required to apply for this examination. Your provisional appointment must have been on or before June 20, 2025, to qualify for this examination.*

Qualifying Experience For Appointment From The Eligible List: After one year of service described in the Minimum Qualifications, successful candidates will be qualified for appointment from the eligible list.

Employees appointed to a non-competitive position via the NY HELPS program to a qualifying title in the non-competitive class will have their names restricted from appointment from the eligible list until their position is covered-in to the competitive class by action of the New York State Civil Service Commission or otherwise obtain permanent competitive status in the position.

If you have received a permanent appointment to a qualifying title listed and served provisionally in that title immediately preceding your permanent appointment, such provisional service may be counted towards meeting the one year time in title required for appointment from the eligible list.

The Positions: These positions exist in the New York State Department of Health and are located in Albany, Buffalo, and New York City.

Duties: As a Medicaid Eligibility Examiner 3, you would serve as a working, second level supervisor of a group of paraprofessionals and/or support staff that perform a variety of duties related to determining eligibility and processing applications for Medicaid and/or public health insurance. You would interact with consumers and advocates as issues arise surrounding various public health insurance programs, make eligibility determinations and process applications for public health insurance in difficult and/or special cases, demonstrate job functions for staff, and assist in the delivery of training.

As a Medicaid Eligibility Examiner 4, you would serve as a manager and administer and direct multiple public health insurance eligibility enrollment functions or a large program; directly supervise a team of lower level staff; ensure adherence to laws, rules, and regulations as well as analyze and interpret State and federal legislation; make recommendations regarding eligibility laws, rules and regulations, and interpret and communicate State and federal laws and codes to implement policies and procedures; ensure efficient program implementation and consistent and correct application of eligibility guidelines; review the most difficult or problematic applications and renewals; communicate program changes to subordinates and ensure changes are incorporated accurately; and participate in the planning, development, arrangement, and provision of staff training.

Notes: If other language parenthetics are established, the list will also be used to fill those positions and appointees must demonstrate their language proficiency prior to appointment.

Subject of Examination: To be considered for appointment to this title, you must pass the multiple-choice test . The multiple-choice test evaluates your knowledge, skills, and/or abilities in the following areas:	For Examination Nos.
	31-219020	31-220020
1. Understanding and interpreting written material based on Medicaid related documents - All information regarding Medicaid policies, rules and regulations needed to answer these questions will be presented in the materials supplied. You will be expected to interpret and evaluate information, make decisions and establish priorities.	X	X
2. Preparing written material - These questions test for the ability to present information clearly and accurately, and to organize paragraphs logically and comprehensibly. For some questions, you will be given information in two or three sentences followed by four restatements of the information. You must then choose the best version. For other questions, you will be given paragraphs with their sentences out of order. You must then choose, from four suggestions, the best order for the sentences.	X	X
3. Ensuring effective inter/intra agency communications - These questions test for understanding of techniques for interacting effectively with individuals and agencies, to educate and inform them about topics of concern, to clarify agency programs or policies, to negotiate conflicts or resolve complaints, and to represent one's agency or program in a manner in keeping with good public relations practices. Questions may also cover interacting with the staff of one's own agency and/or that of other agencies in cooperative efforts of public outreach or service.	X	X
4. Evaluating conclusions based on factual information - These questions test your ability to evaluate and draw conclusions from factual information presented. Each question consists of a set of factual statements and a conclusion. You will be asked to determine whether the conclusion can be proven to be true by the facts, proven to be false by the facts, or if the facts are inadequate to prove the conclusion.	X	X
5. Administrative supervision - These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices involved in directing the activities of a large subordinate staff, including subordinate supervisors. Questions relate to the personal interactions between an upper-level supervisor and their subordinate supervisors in the accomplishment of objectives. These questions cover such areas as assigning work to and coordinating the activities of several units, establishing and guiding staff development programs, evaluating the performance of subordinate supervisors, and maintaining relationships with other organizational sections.	X	X

If you pass, your seniority credit(s), if any, will be included in the computation of your final score. Your final score on the eligible list will be determined after adding any Veterans' credits.

Credit For Seniority: Seniority is credited at the rate of one credit for each five-year period (or fraction thereof), excluding the first year of service.

Admission To The Test: If approved for a multiple-choice test, you will receive an admission notice which will indicate your assigned test date and the way your test will be administered. Your test may be administered with paper and pencil or online at a state test site. You cannot request to change your scheduled day or request a specific type of test administration.

Applicants are required to have a Personal NY.gov account and keep their email address up to date. The Department of Civil Service and other state agencies will communicate with you through email correspondence.
