Interdepartmental promotion examination open to all qualified employees of New York State.

For Promotion in State Departments, Facilities, and Agencies

1. Within Promotion Units 2. Within Entire Departments 3. To Other Departments

Minimum Qualifications: On or before December 13, 2025, you must be a qualified employee of New York State and have had three months of permanent competitive, non-competitive NY HELPS*, or 55-b/55-c service as shown below. If you have received a permanent appointment to a qualifying title listed and served provisionally in that title immediately preceding your permanent appointment, such provisional service may be counted towards meeting the time in title required for this examination.

For Exam No. 31-241020: a Professional Geologist 1 or Engineering Geologist 2, AND a New York State Professional Geologist's license and current registration at time of appointment.

For Exam No. 31-242020: a Professional Geologist 2 or Engineering Geologist 3, AND a New York State Professional Geologist's license and current registration at time of appointment.

In accordance with New York State Education Law 7208.a.5, if you were employed by New York State on November 21, 2016, in a position where you performed geologic services (as defined in the scope of practice of geology in this statute), you are exempt from the requirement of having a New York State Professional Geologist's license and current registration. This exemption will be confirmed by the hiring agency at the time of appointment.

Only the title or titles listed are qualifying.

If you were permanently appointed to a qualifying title on or before September 13, 2025, and have served continuously in this title since that date, you are eligible to file for this examination.

If you were permanently appointed via the New York Hiring for Emergency Limited Placement Statewide (NY HELPS) program to a qualifying title in the non-competitive class on or before September 13, 2025, and have served continuously in this title since that date, you may apply for this examination.*

If you were permanently appointed to a qualifying title and had provisional service in the same title immediately preceding the permanent appointment, such provisional service may be counted towards meeting the time in title required to apply for this examination. Your provisional appointment must have been on or before September 13, 2025, to qualify for this examination.*

Qualifying Experience For Appointment From The Eligible List: After one year of service described in the Minimum Qualifications, successful candidates will be qualified for appointment from the eligible list.

Employees appointed to a non-competitive position via the NY HELPS program to a qualifying title in the non-competitive class will have their names restricted from appointment from the eligible list until their position is covered-in to the competitive class by action of the New York State Civil Service Commission or otherwise obtain permanent competitive status in the position.

If you have received a permanent appointment to a qualifying title listed and served provisionally in that title immediately preceding your permanent appointment, such provisional service may be counted towards meeting the one year time in title required for appointment from the eligible list.

Continued Employment: Continued employment as a Professional Geologist 2 or Professional Geologist 3 is dependent upon continued possession of a New York State Professional Geologist's license and current registration (does not apply if you meet above note of NYSED exemption). Failure to maintain your New York State License and registration may result in removal from employment.

The Positions: These positions exist in Multiple Agencies and are located throughout New York State.

Duties: As a Professional Geologist 2, you would draft new or revised policies and procedures related to geotechnical and geological principles and practices; develop management techniques and guidance for the protection and management of groundwater resources; consult and advise Division, Region, or Bureau Directors on geotechnical/hydrogeologic/geological management programs; interpret, evaluate, and apply Department policies; represent the Department on advisory committees, task forces and other inter-agency activities; serves as technical coordinator of Department's staff for program-relevant training; make technical presentations to professional societies, municipal governments, industry and the public directly oversee the activities of appropriate professional and technical staff; participate in geotechnical and geological meetings with applicants and concerned citizens; give expert testimony at legislative and adjudicatory hearings; host and conduct public meetings to explain the rationale for the Department's choice of actions and remedies at sites; perform special geological and mineralogical studies; and may act as Bureau Director or Bureau Chief in his/her absence fulfilling all requirements of that position.

As a Professional Geologist 3, you would provide policy oversight, management and leadership of an environmental quality program. Duties including developing and supporting work plans and budgets; managing spill response, major oil storage facility and chemical/petroleum bulk storage programs; serving as the liaison between the Division, the Regional Director, Office of General Counsel, Permits, Natural Resources, Operations and representatives of federal, state, local agencies and the public and supervising program staff.

Subject of Examination: To be considered for appointment to this title, you must pass the multiple-choice test . The multiple-choice test evaluates your knowledge, skills, and/or abilities in the following areas:	For Examination Nos.
	31-241020	31-242020
1. Preparing reports and official documents - These questions test for the ability to prepare reports and other official documents for use within and among governmental agencies, in legal or regulatory settings, or for dissemination to the public. Some questions test for a knowledge of grammar, usage, punctuation, and sentence structure. Others test for the ability to present information clearly and accurately, to use the proper tone, and to organize paragraphs logically and comprehensibly.	X	X
2. Administrative supervision - These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices involved in directing the activities of a large subordinate staff, including subordinate supervisors. Questions relate to the personal interactions between an upper level supervisor and their subordinate supervisors in the accomplishment of objectives. These questions cover such areas as assigning work to and coordinating the activities of several units, establishing and guiding staff development programs, evaluating the performance of subordinate supervisors, and maintaining relationships with other organizational sections.	X	X
3. Analyzing and evaluating information - These questions test for the ability to analyze, interpret, and draw reasonable conclusions from information presented in text, data, images or symbols. This may involve identifying a significant problem or issue; focusing on relevant data and text; identifying trends, relationships, and significant features; assessing relevant alternatives; suggesting or evaluating possible conclusions; and applying logical principles to information provided. You should bring with you a hand-held battery- or solar-powered calculator for use on this test. You will not be permitted to use the calculator function of your cell phone .	X	X

Subject of Examination (continued):	For Examination Nos.
	31-241020	31-242020
4. Understanding and applying administrative principles - These questions test for knowledge of how to effectively manage and direct an organization or an organizational segment. These questions cover such areas as developing objectives, formulating policies, making decisions, forecasting and planning, developing personnel, organizing and coordinating work, communicating information, providing leadership, and delegating authority and responsibility.	X	X
5. Working and interacting with others - These questions test for knowledge of how to effectively approach work and maintain professional relationships with others in the workplace. Each question presents a situation and a number of possible approaches for handling it. Question topics may include working with supervisors and coworkers, interacting with members of the public, handling conflict, and managing workplace demands and priorities. The questions are not specific to any job title or place of work.	X	X
6. Understanding and interpreting written material - These questions test how well you comprehend written material. You will be provided with brief reading selections and will be asked questions about the selections. All the information required to answer the questions will be presented in the selections; you will not be required to have any special knowledge relating to the subject areas of the selections.		X
