Promotion examination open to all qualified employees of the New York State
Office of Addiction Services and Supports (OASAS).

Minimum Qualifications: On or before December 13, 2025, you must be a qualified employee of the New York State Office of Addiction Services and Supports (OASAS) and have had permanent competitive, non-competitive NY HELPS, or 55-b/55-c service as shown below. If you have received a permanent appointment to a qualifying title listed and served provisionally in that title immediately preceding your permanent appointment, such provisional service may be counted towards meeting the time in title required for this examination.

For Exam No. 31-247020: Three months as an Addictions Program Specialist 2 or Addictions Program Specialist 2 (Gambling).

For Exam No. 31-248020:

- Either 1. Three months as an Addictions Program Specialist 3;
Or 2. One year as an Addictions Program Specialist 2 or Addictions Program Specialist 2 (Gambling).

Only the title or titles listed are qualifying.

If you were permanently appointed to a qualifying title listed for exam 31-247020 or Option 1 under exam 31-248020 on or before September 13, 2025, and have served continuously in this title since that date, you are eligible to file for this examination.

If you were permanently appointed via the New York Hiring for Emergency Limited Placement Statewide (NY HELPS) program to a qualifying title from exam 31-247020 or Option 1 under exam 31-248020 in the non-competitive class on or before September 13, 2025, and have served continuously in this title since that date, you may apply for this examination.*

If you were permanently appointed to a qualifying title from exam 31-247020 or Option 1 under exam 31-248020 and had provisional service in the same title immediately preceding the permanent appointment, such provisional service may be counted towards meeting the time in title required to apply for this examination. Your provisional appointment must have been on or before September 13, 2025, to qualify for this examination.

If you were permanently appointed to a qualifying title listed in Option 2 under exam 31-248020 on or before January 13, 2025, and have served continuously in this title since that date, you are eligible to file for this examination.

If you were permanently appointed via the New York Hiring for Emergency Limited Placement Statewide (NY HELPS) program to a qualifying title from Option 2 under exam 31-248020 in the non-competitive class on or before January 13, 2025, and have served continuously in this title since that date, you may apply for this examination.*

If you were permanently appointed to a qualifying title from Option 2 under exam 31-248020 and had provisional service in the same title immediately preceding the permanent appointment, such provisional service may be counted towards meeting the time in title required to apply for this examination. Your provisional appointment must have been on or before January 13, 2025, to qualify for this examination.

Qualifying Experience For Appointment From The Eligible List: After one year of the service described in the Minimum Qualifications for exam 31-247020 or Option 1 under exam 31-248020, OR two years of the service described in the Minimum Qualifications for Option 2 under exam 31-248020, successful candidates will be qualified for appointment from the eligible list.

Employees appointed to a non-competitive position via the NY HELPS program to a qualifying title in the non-competitive class will have their names restricted from appointment from the eligible list until their position is covered-in to the competitive class by action of the New York State Civil Service Commission or otherwise obtain permanent competitive status in the position.

If you have received a permanent appointment to a qualifying title listed and served provisionally in that title immediately preceding your permanent appointment, such provisional service may be counted towards meeting the time in title required for appointment from the eligible list.

Additional Requirements for Appointment:

Background Investigation/Justice Center Review: In some agencies, the names of all prospective employees will:

- be checked against the Staff Exclusion List (SEL), maintained by the Justice Center for the Protection of People with Special Needs. Prospective employees whose names appear on the SEL as having been found responsible for serious or repeated acts of abuse or neglect will be barred from appointment and may have their names removed from the eligible list(s) for the title(s);
- be investigated through a Criminal Background Check (CBC). You must report all convictions. Conviction of a felony or misdemeanor or any falsified or omitted information may bar appointment or result in removal after appointment. Each case will be determined on its own merits, consistent with the applicable provisions of state and federal law;

And may:

- be screened against the Statewide Central Register of Child Abuse and Maltreatment (SCR). Prospective employees whose names appear on the SCR may be barred from appointment.

You are responsible for payment of all required fees.

The Positions: These positions exist in the New York State Office of Addiction Services and Supports (OASAS) and are located throughout New York State.

Duties: As an Addictions Program Specialist 3, you would supervise a unit of lower-level Addictions Program Specialists and other staff engaged in the planning, oversight, education, and coordination of substance use disorder treatment, prevention, harm reduction, and recovery services for a specific addictions program area; work closely with the OASAS provider system and local government officials; and assist in the development, implementation, and monitoring of policies and procedures.

As an Addictions Program Specialist 4, you would oversee a large unit, multiple units, or small bureau of lower-level Addictions Program Specialists and other staff engaged in the planning, oversight, education, and coordination of substance use disorder treatment, prevention, harm reduction, and recovery services for a major addictions program area; work closely with the OASAS provider system and local government officials; develop, implement, and monitor policies and procedures; and evaluate addictions services.

Subject of Examination: To be considered for appointment to this title, you must pass the multiple-choice test . The multiple-choice test evaluates your knowledge, skills, and/or abilities in the following areas:	For Examination Nos.
	31-247020	31-248020
1. Analyzing and evaluating information - These questions test for the ability to analyze, interpret, and draw reasonable conclusions from information presented in text, data, images or symbols. This may involve identifying a significant problem or issue; focusing on relevant data and text; identifying trends, relationships, and significant features; assessing relevant alternatives; suggesting or evaluating possible conclusions; and applying logical principles to information provided. You should bring with you a hand-held battery- or solar-powered calculator for use on this test. You will not be permitted to use the calculator function of your cell phone .	X	X

Subject of Examination (continued):	For Examination Nos.
2. Preparing reports and official documents - These questions test for the ability to prepare reports and other official documents for use within and among governmental agencies, in legal or regulatory settings, or for dissemination to the public. Some questions test for a knowledge of correct grammar, usage, punctuation, and sentence structure. Others test for the ability to use the proper tone and to express information clearly and accurately.	X	X
3. Working and interacting with others - These questions test for knowledge of how to effectively approach work and maintain professional relationships with others in the workplace. Each question presents a situation and a number of possible approaches for handling it. Question topics may include working with supervisors and coworkers, interacting with members of the public, handling conflict, and managing workplace demands and priorities. The questions are not specific to any job title or place of work.	X	X
4. Supervision - These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices employed in planning, organizing, and controlling the activities of a work unit toward predetermined objectives. The concepts covered, usually in a situational question format, include such topics as assigning and reviewing work; evaluating performance; maintaining work standards; motivating and developing subordinates; implementing procedural change; increasing efficiency; and dealing with problems of absenteeism, morale, and discipline.	X
5. Understanding and interpreting written material - These questions test how well you comprehend written material. You will be provided with brief reading selections and will be asked questions about the selections. All the information required to answer the questions will be presented in the selections; you will not be required to have any special knowledge relating to the subject areas of the selections.	X	X
6. Administrative supervision - These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices involved in directing the activities of a large subordinate staff, including subordinate supervisors. Questions relate to the personal interactions between an upper level supervisor and their subordinate supervisors in the accomplishment of objectives. These questions cover such areas as assigning work to and coordinating the activities of several units, establishing and guiding staff development programs, evaluating the performance of subordinate supervisors, and maintaining relationships with other organizational sections.
