Promotion examination open to all qualified employees of the New York State Department of Health.

Minimum Qualifications: On or before September 19, 2026, you must be a qualified employee of the New York State Department of Health and have had three months of permanent competitive, non-competitive NY HELPS*, or 55-b/55-c service as shown below. If you have received a permanent appointment to a qualifying title listed and served provisionally in that title immediately preceding your permanent appointment, such provisional service may be counted towards meeting the time in title required for this examination.

+For Exam No. 31-529020, 31-530020, 31-531020, and 31-532020: Program Research Specialist 1, Program Research Specialist 1 (Health Care Finance), Program Research Specialist 1 (Health Systems Analysis), Program Research Specialist 1 (Medical Assistance), or Program Research Specialist 1 (Public Health).

Applicants serving at the Trainee 1 and Trainee 2 levels of the Full Performance Level of the titles listed in the Minimum Qualifications are also considered qualifying.

+Due to the October 27, 2022, Title Structure Change: permanent competitive or 55-b/55-c service as a Program Research Specialist 2, Grade 18; Program Research Specialist 2 (Health Care Finance), Grade 18; Program Research Specialist 2 (Health Systems Analysis), Grade 18; Program Research Specialist 2 (Medical Assistance), Grade 18; or Program Research Specialist 2 (Public Health), Grade 18 is also qualifying.

++For Exam No. 31-533020, 31-534020, 34-535020 and 31-536020: Program Research Specialist 2, Program Research Specialist 2 (Health Care Finance), Program Research Specialist 2 (Health Systems Analysis), Program Research Specialist 2 (Medical Assistance), or Program Research Specialist 2 (Public Health).

++Due to the October 27, 2022, Title Structure Change: permanent competitive or 55-b/55-c service as a Program Research Specialist 3, Grade 23; Program Research Specialist 3 (Health Care Finance), Grade 23; Program Research Specialist 3 (Health Systems Analysis), Grade 23; Program Research Specialist 3 (Medical Assistance), Grade 23; or Program Research Specialist 3 (Public Health), Grade 23 is also qualifying.

Only the title or titles listed are qualifying.

If you were permanently appointed to a qualifying title on or before June 19, 2026, and have served continuously in this title since that date, you are eligible to file for this examination.

If you were permanently appointed via the New York Hiring for Emergency Limited Placement Statewide (NY HELPS) program to a qualifying title in the non-competitive class on or before June 19, 2026, and have served continuously in this title since that date, you may apply for this examination.*

If you were permanently appointed to a qualifying title and had provisional service in the same title immediately preceding the permanent appointment, such provisional service may be counted towards meeting the time in title required to apply for this examination. Your provisional appointment must have been on or before June 19, 2026, to qualify for this examination.*

Qualifying Experience For Appointment From The Eligible List: After one year of service at the Full Performance Level, successful candidates will be qualified for appointment from the eligible list.

Employees appointed via the NY HELPS program to a qualifying title in the non-competitive class will have their names restricted from appointment from the eligible list until their position is covered-in to the competitive class by action of the New York State Civil Service Commission or otherwise obtain permanent competitive status in the position.

If you have received a permanent appointment to a qualifying title listed and served provisionally in that title immediately preceding your permanent appointment, such provisional service may be counted towards meeting the time in title required for appointment from the eligible list.

You would also supervise lower-level Program Research Specialists (Public Health) and staff.

Subject of Examination: To be considered for appointment to this title, you must pass the multiple-choice test. The multiple-choice test evaluates your knowledge, skills, and/or abilities in the following areas:	For Examination Nos.
	31-529020 31-530020 31-531020 31-532020	31-533020 31-534020 31-535020 31-536020
1. Understanding and interpreting tabular material - These questions test your ability to understand, analyze, and use the internal logic of data presented in tabular form. You may be asked to perform tasks such as completing tables, drawing conclusions from them, analyzing data trends or interrelationships, and revising or combining data sets. The concepts of rate, ratio, and proportion are tested. Mathematical operations are simple, and computational speed is not a major factor in the test.	X	X
2. Preparing reports and official documents - These questions test for the ability to prepare reports and other official documents for use within and among governmental agencies, in legal or regulatory settings, or for dissemination to the public. Some questions test for a knowledge of grammar, usage, punctuation, and sentence structure. Others test for the ability to present information clearly and accurately, to use the proper tone, and to organize paragraphs logically and comprehensibly.	X	X
3. Descriptive and inferential statistics - These questions test for knowledge of statistical methods and techniques and their application. The questions will cover such areas as central tendency and variability, the normal distribution, hypothesis testing, statistical significance testing, probability, correlation and regression, parametric and nonparametric statistics, and analysis of variance. The questions are primarily conceptual, but you may be required to do some manipulation of data.	X	X
4. Research and experimental design - These questions test for knowledge of the concepts and techniques involved in the collection and interpretation of data, and the design and implementation of research studies. The questions cover such areas as sampling theory and methods, survey methods, and research and experimental design concepts. You will not be required to do any substantial manipulation of data.	X	X
5. Supervision - These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices employed in planning, organizing, and controlling the activities of a work unit toward predetermined objectives. The concepts covered, usually in a situational question format, include such topics as assigning and reviewing work; evaluating performance; maintaining work standards; motivating and developing subordinates; implementing procedural change; increasing efficiency; and dealing with problems of absenteeism, morale, and discipline.
