Promotion examination open to all qualified employees of the New York State Office of Children and Family Services.

Minimum Qualifications: On or before May 13, 2023, you must be a qualified employee of the New York State Office of Children and Family Services and have had three months of permanent competitive or 55-b/55-c service as a:

For Exam No. 38-910: Child Protective Services Specialist 1, Child Protective Services Specialist 1 (Spanish Language), Child Protective Services Specialist Trainee, or Child Protective Services Specialist Trainee (Spanish Language).

For Exam No. 38-911: Child Protective Services Specialist 2.

If you were permanently appointed to a qualifying title on or before February 13, 2023, and have served continuously in this title since that date, you are eligible to file for this examination.

Only the title or titles listed are qualifying.

Qualifying Experience For Appointment From The Eligible List:

For Exam No. 38-910: After one year of service at the full performance level, successful candidates will be qualified for appointment from the eligible list.

For Exam No. 38-911: After one year of service described in the Minimum Qualifications, successful candidates will be qualified for appointment from the eligible list.

Additional Requirements for Appointment:

- Background Investigation/Justice Center Review: In some agencies, the names of all prospective employees may:
- be checked against the Staff Exclusion List (SEL), maintained by the Justice Center for the Protection of People with Special Needs. Prospective employees whose names appear on the SEL as having been found responsible for serious or repeated acts of abuse or neglect will be barred from appointment and may have their names removed from the eligible list(s) for the title(s);
 - be investigated through a Criminal Background Check (CBC). You must report all convictions. Conviction of a felony or misdemeanor or any falsified or omitted information may bar appointment or result in removal after appointment. Each case will be determined on its own merits, consistent with the applicable provisions of state and federal law;

And will:

- be screened against the Statewide Central Register of Child Abuse and Maltreatment (SCR). Prospective employees whose names appear on the SCR may be barred from appointment.

You are responsible for payment of all required fees.

The Positions: These positions exist in the Albany-Capital District area and are located in Menands, New York.

Duties: As a Child Protective Services Specialist 2, you would supervise and train Child Protective Services Specialist 1's responsible for intake functions, post intake functions, and various tasks in support of the Statewide Central Register 24/7 Child Abuse and Maltreatment Hotline (SCR); handle cases of extreme difficulty or sensitivity; implement new requirements and procedures; and evaluate the effect of changes in agency policy and procedures on SCR operations.

As a Child Protective Services Specialist 3, you would function as a second level supervisor over lower level staff on the Statewide Central Register 24/7 Child Abuse and Maltreatment Hotline (SCR). You would supervise Child Protective Services Specialist 2's; manage daily hotline call volume and staffing resources using knowledge and understanding of relevant sections of child protective laws, rules, and regulations, as well as agency policies and procedures; promote staff development, quality assurance, productivity, and relationships with local districts and voluntary agencies; and collect and interpret intake data as necessary.

Subject of Examination: To be considered for appointment to this title, you must pass the written test . The written test evaluates your knowledge, skills, and/or abilities in the following areas:	For Examination Nos.
	38-910	38-911
1. Evaluating conclusions based on factual information - These questions test your ability to evaluate and draw conclusions from factual information presented. Each question consists of a set of factual statements and a conclusion. You will be asked to determine whether the conclusion can be proven to be true by the facts, proven to be false by the facts, or if the facts are inadequate to prove the conclusion.	X	X
2. Interviewing - These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices employed in obtaining information from individuals through structured conversations. These questions require you to apply the principles, practices, and techniques of effective interviewing to hypothetical interviewing situations. Included are questions that present a problem arising from an interviewing situation, and you must choose the most appropriate course of action to take.	X
3. Laws, rules, regulations and concepts related to child abuse and neglect - These questions test both for a knowledge of New York State law, policies, and administrative directives in effect as of January 1, 2023, which are related to child abuse and neglect and for a knowledge of the standard concepts, behaviors, and indicators which enable a worker to determine that the circumstances presented meet the criteria for registering a report.	X	X
4. Preparing written material - These questions test for the ability to present information clearly and accurately, and to organize paragraphs logically and comprehensibly. For some questions, you will be given information in two or three sentences followed by four restatements of the information. You must then choose the best version. For other questions, you will be given paragraphs with their sentences out of order. You must then choose, from four suggestions, the best order for the sentences.	X	X
5. Supervision - These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices employed in planning, organizing, and controlling the activities of a work unit toward predetermined objectives. The concepts covered, usually in a situational question format, include such topics as assigning and reviewing work; evaluating performance; maintaining work standards; motivating and developing subordinates; implementing procedural change; increasing efficiency; and dealing with problems of absenteeism, morale, and discipline.	X
6. Administrative supervision - These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices involved in directing the activities of a large subordinate staff, including subordinate supervisors. Questions relate to the personal interactions between an upper level supervisor and their subordinate supervisors in the accomplishment of objectives. These questions cover such areas as assigning work to and coordinating the activities of several units, establishing and guiding staff development programs, evaluating the performance of subordinate supervisors, and maintaining relationships with other organizational sections.
