EFFECT OF APPOINTMENTS AND DECLINATIONS OF FULL TIME PERMANENT or CONTINGENT PERMANENT POSITIONS

If you receive a permanent/contingent permanent appointment at any location, your name will be inactivated on all lists for all titles at that salary grade and below for all locations. If the appointment is to a title below your current salary grade, your name will remain active for any titles at a higher level.

If you decline a permanent/contingent permanent appointment* to a same grade level position

- in the same county in which you are currently employed, your name will be inactivated for all titles and counties
- in a different county from which you are currently employed, your name will be inactivated for all titles in that county to a lower grade position

- in the same county in which you are currently employed, your name will be inactivated for all titles at that level and below for all counties
- in a different county from that in which you are currently employed, your name will be inactivated for all titles at that grade level and below in all counties within the area, except your current county (See the booklet "Information for State Employees Affected by Layoff" for area designations.)

*Declinations of Redeployment List opportunities will not affect your future preferred list or reemployment roster rights. Declinations of reemployment roster opportunities will not affect your preferred list rights. Declinations of preferred list opportunities WILL affect BOTH your preferred list and reemployment roster rights.

EFFECT OF APPOINTMENTS AND DECLINATIONS OF TEMPORARY AND LESS THAN FULL TIME POSITIONS

If the type of the appointment is temporary, neither an appointment nor a declination will affect your eligibility for permanent appointments. Only your eligibility for other temporary appointments would be affected.

If the type of employment is less than full time, neither an appointment nor a declination will affect your eligibility for full time, only your eligibility for less than full time will be affected.
