Brief Description of Class Series

Student Loan Control Representatives perform a variety of collection and customer service activities requiring regular contact with borrowers, lending institutions, and third parties for the prevention and collection of defaulted student loans.

These positions are classified at the State University at Albany where they perform these functions for the entire State University system.

Distinguishing Characteristics

Student Loan Control Representatives engage in telephone communication with a variety of individuals and organizations to locate and contact borrowers of loans guaranteed by the Higher Education Services Corporation or other national student loans and to effect repayment of those loans.

Student Loan Control Representative 1: entry level; works under general supervision of a Student Loan Control Representative 2 or higher level staff.

Student Loan Control Representative 2: supervisory level; works under general supervision of a professional position; schedules, assigns, and reviews the work of Student Loan Control Representatives 1 and clerical staff and may perform some or all of the duties of that title in addition to their supervisory duties.

Related Classes

Collection and Civil Prosecution Specialists 1 trace, locate and contact debtors referred to the Department of Law for nonpayment of their State obligations and either arrange voluntary compliance or extract it through income executions, fines and court action. They also perform related paralegal work.

Tax Compliance Representatives 1 perform paraprofessional duties to effect the collection of delinquent taxes. They trace and contact tax debtors by telephone or in writing and occasionally meet with delinquent taxpayers to resolve their outstanding obligations.

Tax Compliance Agents 1 are field positions and enforce provisions of the Tax Law, the Labor Law and other laws concerning the liabilities of tax debtors by collecting taxes from delinquent taxpayers who have not responded to written and telephonic attempts at collection.
